Shes got her head in the clouds
Shes got the stars in her eyes
Shes dancing with a dream in her heart
Shes got the wind in her hair
Moonchild shining bright
And she's dancing, with a dream in her heart

Severina, severina

She believes in angels,
She believes in will of the gods
And she's dancing amongst the magic dust
She believes in the midnight trance
She believes in love is the law
And she's dancing amongst the magic dust

Severina, severina

Star child!
Baby born of heaven!
Severina! severina!
Ooooooooooooooooooooo....

Shes got a heart full of promise
Shes got a hand in her heart
Shes dancing by the light of the moon
Shes got a head full of secrets
Sworn to the faith of love on the will
Shes dancing by the light of the moon

Severina! severina!
Shes a gift to the gods and she's dancing
Severina! severina! severina!
Aaaaahhhhhh.....
