"Falling"

I was falling
Through the air
From the tallest building
Away OK away
And I felt the air rush
Flowing over me
And I could hear you calling
From far away away

I could see the future
Rushing up to meet me
Between the seconds
Split into smaller parts
I could feel the even
Every stream of air
I could feel the Rockies stay
For me OK OK
To me OK OK

Show me the way the way the way
Show me the way the way the way
Show me the way the way the way
Show me the way the way the way

Increasing focus
Telescoping lines and forms
The tiny details
Come home come home come home
I was falling
Through the air
From the tallest building
Away OK away
I could see the future
Rushing up to meet me
Between the seconds
Split into smaller parts
I could feel the even
Every stream of air
I could hear your words fall
By me OK OK
By me OK OK
