The buss has come and gone we missed it long ago they say the scene is changing but I got no place to go been left out in the dark to find my way back home been searching for the answer when I knew it all along

Writing those songs
been done a thousand times before watching the time pass by i'll be waving that flag wounded on my knees i'm dying for those colors and I wear them on my sleeve

the colors or the greed the guys that give their lives for a shot at MTV to everyone that lost I tip my glass to you
we tried until we died and that's the best that we could do
