One day, a day like no other
No other day like that day
One lie, words just falling
How can my world just fall apart this way?

One time to heal, one time to hurt you
And now I can't even feel you
I had one time and now it's over one time

One chance is all, one time only
And if the sun doesn't call
I had one time, one

Once I thought I had everything
But everything I had seemed to die
One tear and then it was over
Over and over I still ask myself why

One time to heal, one time to hurt you
And now I can't even feel you
I had one time and now it's over one time
One chance is all, one time only
And if the sun doesn't call
I had one time, one

One time love was the only
Only love wasn't only mine
And one day, I'll do it with feeling
I'm just not feeling it today

One time to heal, one time to hurt you
Now I can't even feel you
I had one time and now it's over one time

One chance is all, one time only
And if the sun doesn't call
I had one time, one time

One chance is all, one time only
And if the sun doesn't call
I had one time and now it's over one time
And now it's over from my [Incomprehensible]
