Good night sister moon been here waiting for you
Put my blue shirt on, grew my hair out long
I don't mean to be coy, if I say I'm a fool
Just can't find the water when I jump in the pool
Easy to miss
So visible, easy to miss
So visible
Good morning sweet child, you captivate this place
Your modern art impressionist face
Wanna take a chance on a guy like me
Life in a Dali painting lacks subtly
Easy to miss
So visible, easy to miss
So visible
I don't wanna lose it again
I don't wanna abuse it again
I don't wanna miss it again, O no...
Ambitious lover, under restless cover
Disconnected, undiscovered
Everybody's traveling down this road called soul
Millenium journey for the truth to be told
Easy to miss
So visible, easy to miss
So visible
I don't wanna lose it again
I don't wanna abuse it again
I don't wanna miss it again
I don't wanna lose it again
I don't wanna abuse it again
I don't wanna miss it again
So visible you're easy to miss
Just so so visible, east to miss.
