I woke to the sound of a single note ringing out
And I thought, thought you had left me
I thought you had disappeared

It was sadder than any song
That I'd ever heard

But now I know it was all in my head
All in my head
All this time it was all in my head
All in my head

I walked every street, searched every lonely bar
Where you might be
I thought I'd never find you
I thought all was lost

I was sadder than any song
That I'd ever heard

But now I know it was all in my head
All in my head
All this time it was all in my head
All in my head

I finally found you
Deep in my heart you'd been hiding out
I didn't know the dark light in my soul
Had been blacking you out

It was all in my head
All in my head
All this time it was all in my head
All in my head
All this time it was all in my head
All in my head
