Won't you take my pain away
I've been waiting to get saved
I know I need some time to find back faith
But I'm too tired of this love delay
It's been some time now
That you made me feel blue
Your bells they were chiming
And all I could do
Was running away from the monster I saw
Now I got lost on memory lane
In need of your love
This love delay
This love delay
Now I am calling you
Is that so sad?
You are calling me a fool
But ain't you just scared?
Your friends they give you such good advice
Don't you dare listen
This is a dangerous life
This love delay
This love delay
Delay
Delay
Delay
