Oh almighty
God, what have I done
Is there a way to the way this affair has begun?
Oh sweet remembrance how can I overcome?
If I open my arms would you lay down your guns?
Would you lie down next to me?
Could you just cry out loud on my chest?
Or would it be the best to say goodbye?
I was a soldier on your frontline
Now Iâ€™m in the hospital
How Iâ€™d like to reload
And shoot you off your pedestal
How come you violently love me?
Baby what youâ€™re aiming at?
Is it the hole in my heart
or the part thatâ€™s shiny red?
Would you lie down next to me?
Could you just cry out loud on my chest?
Or would it be the best to say goodbye?
When I caress other bodies
Memories grow too strong
My heart jumps right back
To where it belonged
I doubt if I can be any longer
Any longer in doubt
Iâ€™ll let you into my heart
To never let you out
Oh grand finale
Donâ€™t wait another day
If Iâ€™m a man Iâ€™d grab your hand
And take all your pain away
If Iâ€™m a man oh almighty
Iâ€™d jump right through the fire
Take out the sword and fight
For every inch of our desire
Would you lie down next to me?
Could you just cry out loud on my chest?
Or would it be the best to say goodbye?
And if you cry I will try not to frown not to protest
I will do my best to do it right
