Iâ€™m holding the bad news
Miles away from the light
Burying the darkness
In the coldest of my nights
I donâ€™t wanna fight
I cherish your perfume
In the body shop of my mind
I can never hurt you
As long as I am blind
I am too much in love
To rescue me
To rescue you
Rescue me
You are the brightest moment
In my entire life
It didnâ€™t bring us home yet
It just shut out every other light
I donâ€™t wanna fight
I thought it was a good omen
To dream of you all night
What if Iâ€™m just a slow man
What if Iâ€™m just messing with the time
I am too much in love
To rescue me
To rescue you
I am too much in love
To rescue me
To rescue you
I am too much in love
To rescue me
To rescue you
Rescue me
