Soon I'll find my way soon I'll find my girl
Soon I'll find the world looks lovely
I no longer have to wait, I'm not looking for a pearl
I'm not looking for an image of me
Soon I'll find my way soon I'll find my girl
Soon I'll find the world looks lovely
I no longer hesitate, I'm not looking for a pearl
I'm not looking in the mirror can't you see
Me, I simply disagree.
What's far away's not reserved for me I only wanna
Be at the dock of the bay. It's such a beautiful place
Soon I'll find my way
Soon I'll find my way soon I'll find my girl
Soon I'll find the wasteland covered with pearls
I no longer hesitate, I'm not looking at the world
I'm not looking in the mirror, can't you see
I simply disagree, what's far away's not reserved for me
I only wanna be at the dock of the bay it's such a beautiful place
Soon I'll find my way Soon I'll find my way
Soon I'll find my way
