All it takes to take away
All hope and all despair
I could have lived another life
When you hadn't been there
Sunrise is lightyears away
And sundown is lasting
Longer
All it takes to cut and paste
Put the facts in the right place
It takes guts to quit my love
If you don't know how it will be replaced
Sunrise is lightyears away
And sundown is lasting
Longer than the day
All it takes to take away
All hope and all despair
I could have lived another life
When you hadn't been there
Sunrise is lightyears away
And sundown is lasting
Longer
Than the day
