I wish that I was free
I wish that I was weightless
But Iâ€™m afraid that that ainâ€™t me
I havenâ€™t flown for ages
I will do it tomorrow
I will do it tomorrow
I will do it tomorrow
I wonâ€™t do it today
My wildest dreams they have been chained
All pictures have been counted
But I donâ€™t feel quite like a saint
I just havenâ€™t finally found it
I will do it tomorrow
I will do it tomorrow
I will do it tomorrow
I wonâ€™t do it today
Will you be there tomorrow
Or will you leave today?
Now I wish that you were here
In the heydays of this autumn
I would tell you about my fears
And explain you how Iâ€™ve caught them
And I would say tomorrow
I would say tomorrow
I would say tomorrow
Will be the day
Will you be there tomorrow
Or will you leave today?
