She said I read her diary
Her secret inner fantasies
She said I broke the code of love
I caught her going through my drawers
An offense I felt of course
And then she broke the code of love

CHORUS:

You broke it - you know you did - yeah
You broke it - I watched you do it

She always thought she was my world
But I know lots of other girls
They made me break the code of love
We had a real prefab-type thing
A docile domestic home scene
Until we broke the code of love

CHORUS

The code of love should never be broken
The code of love - words remain unspoken

Code of...code of...code of...
