He's standing alone with his gun in his hand
Wondering why he's the man with the gun in his hand
Brother of mine please don't take this choice
Drop the gun and follow my voice

Ohh
Ohh

Is it just enough for you to breathe, I'm begging
Is it not enough to just have me whoa

He's standing alone with the gun in his hand
Why am I the man, why am I the man
Brother of mine take this away I'm sick of this life of pain

Ohh
Ohh

Is it just enough for you to breathe, I'm begging
Is it not enough to just have me whoa
Is it just enough for you to be, I'm trying
To be the person that you need, please don't go, whoa

He's dead on the floor with his gun in his hand
Why was he the man, why was he the man

Is it just enough for you to breathe, I'm begging
It's not enough to be just me whoa
Is it just enough for you to breathe, I'm begging
Is it not enough to just have me whoa
Is it just enough for you to be, I'm trying
And where I go you will follow
