now! the sunrise dying
now! hell demons rise
now! the light is loosing so fast is getting dark like tide shade covering the light like tide they fly to announce night high above the sky is burning red heaven's blood is dropping on earth in battle between light and dark black moon hurted shining sun
now! the sunrise dying
now! hell demons rise... savage souls of coursed being crushing the golden gate angels howling their wings burning for this god is coming the end planet is lousing under fire from degraded sky people shrill in global suicide million of angels standing on the castle walls screaming for help but only people hear them calls nowhere to to run no place to hide only fire reign on the earth and on the sky hear the battle cries now!!!
