demon of dream... when you wake up in the night wrapped in a rough blanket of fear you can't fall asleep than you think of what you can save petrified you can't find anything...
I, demon of dream return again I, demon of night awake desires again I return to your dreams I haunt your imagination I tear your old wounds you wake up and you bleed as before everywhere you see dark emptiness I, demon of dream king of darkness
I, demon of night awake desires I give you a black flower you cry because you know it's power I give you a black candle you walk away into the land of silence I give a black flower you change into a witch I give you a black candle good bye forever...!!!
