ghastly place of my soul, mysterious dreams i walk alone among graves, among clouds i'm new in this heaven inside myself, newly awaken!?? another cosmos in my eyes
forever... beautiful... dead smile... another heaven inside you forever sorrow, forever shame on equal terms, we walk among gods selection continues! it's better to consume our sins just like you before sanitary inspection inflicts a punishment for selling outdated goods!
my world, my life, my sin, my mind it died for you but will resurrect in hate thousand years ago the world in my dreams passed away... emotions gave birth to a new life i've seen the smile coming on old faces...
forever... beautiful... dead smile...
scared of death - roulette still runs in religions broken faith you will never stop the time even when you commit suicide days like funeral, but where is pain?
my illusion burns in your eyes... why are withered flowers grown here?
and why do i eat them every day?
death is the only pleasure that you cannot feel...!
