He lived by the sea, the dolphin boy
And he loved the dolphin's that swam so free. the dolphin boy
He was at one with the ocean the dolphins he loved with devotion
And he could not hide his emotion, the dolphin boy

So he abandoned the land up above, the dolphin boy
So he could be with the mammals he loved, the dolphin boy
He was fulfilled in heart and mind
He as at one with all dolphin kind
And he knew God's greater design, the dolphin boy

Then he was hit by a boat, the dolphin boy
He was torn wide open from groin to throat, the dolphin
boy
He said to the dolphins, "Please Help Me"
And the dolphins said simply, "EEE EEE EEE"
And they nibbled the pieces as they drifted free Goodbye to dolphin boy
So long to dolphin boy
