As she sits there so consumed
Does she even know the truth
Of what happened here tonight
Does she remember who she was
Brothers, sisters, parents
Does she even have a name

Will she change my mind (Change my mind)
Do I want to be that way
Will it pass in time (Pass in time)
Will I want to every day

Does the future that I want
Mean losing all the present
I think in this case that it does
Though I picture myself there
When I see her tremble
The picture starts to fade away

Is it worth the price (Worth the price)
Will I make it past the pain
Leave it all behind (all behind)
Can I live an endless day

She stares at me
Piercing my soul

Is it worth losing all I know
She stares at me
How can I tell
A reflection of my future self
I don't know

Is it worth the price (Worth the price)
Will I make it past the pain
Leave it all behind (all behind)
Can I live an endless day

She stares at me
Piercing my soul
Is it worth losing all I know
She stares at me

How can I tell
A reflection of my future self
I don't know

Is it worth the price (She stares at me piercing my soul)
Will I make it past the pain (Is it worth losing all I know?)
Leave it all behind (She stares at me, how can I tell)
Can I live an endless day (A reflection of my future self)
I don't know (I don't know)
