Can't you see my heart is heavy
Just because I know you're leaving
Sometimes I wish you could read my mind
Look at me I'm always lost,
But I am found and I can't believe it
There is just one more thing I have to ask

Stay with me for a while
Stay with me and I'll smile
Never leave and you'll see
Stay with me, will you please?

Drowning in a topaz sea and
Who knew death could be comforting
The blackness of the past is so far away
I see you and then it hits me

It's no wonder you eclipse me
Everything I wanted has come true

Stay with me for a while
Stay with me and I'll smile
Never leave and you'll see
Stay with me, will you please?

And so our paths have crossed
The lion and the lamb
Please tell me you'll never leave me
You're part of who I am

Stay with me for a while
Stay with me and I'll smile
Never leave and you'll see
Stay with me, will you please?
