Every day that I've lived
I didn't know that I was waiting for you
And out of no where you where there Destructing all I knew

I'm down on my knees
With one thing to ask
I'm begging you please to say yes
Welcome to something new
Where two lives are joined to make one
She said yes and the best of my endless life is to come

Hey, listen to the sound
Of my feet leaving the ground
Hey, love is the last thing that I thought I would have found

Every breath that I take
I want to breathe you in Your smile is so bright that it feels like the sun
Shinning on my skin

I'm down on my knees
With one thing to ask
I'm begging you please to say yes
Welcome to something new
Where two lives are joined to make one
She said yes and the best of my endless life is to come

Hey, listen to the sound
Of my feet leaving the ground
Hey, love is the last thing that I thought I would have found
