I'm not alone
I know you feel it
So much deeper than we can see
Blood runs strong
And all my emotions have taken their toll on me

A lonely battle
Another night
I don't wanna fight anymore
Nobody wins in this war

Two hearts are breaking
Is there an end in sight
Don't keep me waiting
'Cause I can't fight anymore
Nobody wins in this war

It's you and I
And nothing else matters
It's all of the love that you've given me
We will survive... if we lay down our weapons
While we've still got time

Will you surrender or give it up
'Cause I don't wanna fight anymore
Nobody wins in this war

These wounds of love need healing
I'm leaving it all in your hands
