Your son's stressin' you out
When he was home, he showed no respect for ya house
Now he locked up, callin' collect and you about to put a block
On your phone, 'til he says you're the only one helpin' him out

He said his friends ain't there for him
He wished he'd listened when you said they don't care
for him
Every night, before you sleep, you say a pray for him
You even blame yourself 'cause you couldn't pay bail
for him

You raised him the best you could He respect you more now 'cause you're his best friend in the hood
He said he love you and he sorry for the trouble he caused you
And it isn't because of you he in there
So live ya life

This life, oh this life
I promise to keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on strugglin'
I'm gonna do it right
So there won't have to be no troubles in my life

You single and strugglin', sleepin' with dudes
Get no feelings involved, they trickin' on you
You think you gettin' ova, as time flies you gettin' olda
You waking up with nobody to hold ya

You're like bad dope, nobody wants you Haunted by your past ghosts, they used to run through Changin' is your last hope, but do you want to?
Are you still sensual prey when dealers come through?

Is your respect worth losin' for the next man's wealth?
Look in the mirror, stare at yourself
Everything you do in darkness will come to the light

Stop fighting your conscience and live ya life

This life, oh this life
I promise to keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on
strugglin'
I'm gonna do it right
So there won't have to be no troubles in my life

You had an addiction, it was so clear Child welfare came to your home and apprehended your children
Now you faced with a decision
What ya love more, stimulation or your children?

The choice is yours, in the presence of evil
You started sniffin', boy you was scared of them needles
Your man died from sharin' with people
You know that dope good if you said, "It's diesel"

Now you staring at your kids room, but it don't seem true
It's sunny outside but it don't seem blue
You got kids who need you, what you gonna do?
The only way you gonna make things right is to get yourself together
Live ya life

This life, oh this life
I promise to keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on
strugglin'
I'm gonna do it right
So there won't have to be no troubles in my life

This life, oh this life
I promise to keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on
strugglin'
I'm gonna do it right
So there won't have to be no troubles in my life

Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on strugglin'
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on strugglin'
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on strugglin'
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on strugglin'
This is life
