[Lyrics: - Coss]

And so the silence shall fall Enter O warrior of the past Greet thee with jubilation Rise hero to this mass Slayer of mighty beasts Please this crowd -with butchery

Come forth 'O demons killer of man Go forward beasts of blood lust Take these offerings blessed to you Prey upon the weakened one Wretched demons burst from the gate Feast upon the human man

[Solo: - Macey]

[Solo: - Macey]

Roman god of the arena Surrounded by your hunters See eyes glaze with the dreams of death Their hunger commands they feed Attack this human for the flesh Appease thy ravenous beasts

Silence falls on the sea of man Blood spills from the butchered beasts Saturate the arena sands Wounded warrior stands Rises arm in victory And the ovation falls
