[Lyrics: - Coss]

I see a world Structured from my soul Palaces from my dreams My spirit can embrace You attack my body Making me ever strong I shall stand tall I am everlasting

Souls rise to the eternal sea The weak crumble away Strong becoming ever stronger A force beyond the mortal Hear the souls call Lifting me from within Embraced i rise A god in my death

Reaching the invisible mass It engulfs me with sanctity I am caught with the others The ones who dream in splendour My beacon burns so bright Becoming brighter still My call cries over all I have risen beyond the physical

[Solo: - Macey]

I rise
I soar
I am everlasting

[Solo: - Macey]

Call out to me As i soar above Beyond the power of sight I exist in a world of dreams Physical state gone from my memory I rise forever more Immortality beckons I exist eternally

[Solo: - White]
