(feat. Sparks)

It was only a lover's game now we're trapped in the world of our dreams
All the same as the evening rain
All the same as the sound of the sea

I,I,I,I,I wouldn't worry 'bout it
We're feelin' clean
A little crowd as we're singing
in the shower tonight

See the water and feel the steam as it winding around you and me Feeling dirty and feeling clean in the center of our fantasy

We could stay here a million years
Never knowing the world and its games
Red hot water dissolves the fear Red hot kisses drive us insane

I,I,I,I,I wouldn't worry 'bout it
We're feelin' clean
A little crowd as we're singing
in the shower tonight

We could stay here a million years
never knowing the world and its games
Here we are like a naked choir in a church that's completely in flames

I,I,I,I,I wouldn't worry 'bout it
We're feelin' clean
A little crowd as we're singing
in the shower tonight
