[Lyrics: - Macey]

Riding forth - for the greater glory of their god
Riding forth - To rage against their infidel
Taking by force - Claiming holy lands as their own
Allachibar - Can no one withstand the power of their god?

Sent by their pope They rewarded tolerance
With no mercy To reclaim their Holy lands
They had to have slaughter
Diplomacy a concept Lost on these uncivilised barbarians

[Solo: - Macey]

I come forth An unstoppable wind of the east
Taking under my vast wing New lands for my governance
Horsemen of the open steppe No one can withstand
"If you had not been so evil, i would not have come"
For i am the wrath of god

[Solo: - White]
