you say it ain't my life
it don't really mean shit
but if you think for a minute then it fits

you don't remember the fight theres no high in sight tonight but if your payin the price
your checkin it twice

I wanna take it when I make it so I take it in and when I speak it hope it reaches so you freak and then you go and share it cause you care and they can see it in the reaction satisfaction when we teach these men it comes from deep within I cannot keep it in

I do not celebrate sin I do not harbor hate ive got a larger fate then a mansion in a farther place then the hamptons and if you can all relate put ur hand in your more than welcome the guest list is for all I bless this and call all my homies to help me stand tall cuz I can fall back with my eyes closed and get caught and rise and hope that all shit talkin dies id rather have a healthy life then a wealthy wife to take from and if nobody ever gave a shit then I would make one and then another for my brother but only once each one teach some no love for it dunce

can you feel it in the air or just a cold stare?
I try and row near my family but I hold dear I got this whole fear lookin foolish when I soul share you tryin too hard just to rule us with that bold flare quit the laughin how I'm actin isnt so rare if I was mackin full of passion id go no where whoa there I grab the horsey by the riens and tell him take me to the kingdom where no one is feelin pain and everyones got a name beautiful to match the face where the world is not a race till the finish were enjoying this place evoiding this space utilizes mind till the fullest thats the coolest now lets just to do this tables seem stable people who speak powerful cowards you can leave and get devowered by the greive and feed off machines collect that green collect that green me, I wanna breathe in

I don't wanna be treated like a king all I do is rap cant even sing and when I think of that it stings collect my little scratch and travel across the map babble and toss em back and fools is lovin me for that like they lovin the shaq attack and girls for bein stacked lovin to smoke a sack but I broke it down to the fact that nobody loves a stranger and everybody stays within a range of themselves and what pertains to them but if we change it then we will see the strangest grins maybe aim to kin everywhere you go I feel the ones who are in to know are already peepin I watch and understand and grow and I give thanks for that no sleepin
