I've seen the future
Simple, but elegant
They've got the latest trends
And all money to spend
With modern science
Forgiving all the sins
What a miracle
Don't know where to begin

Turning back the clocks
Just a second or two
I see you standing there, knowing not what to do
With every breathe you take, another moment goes by
The rhythm of the bass gives you that look in your eye

CHORUS

Wake Up! Wake Up! The night is young!
Waiting for the breakdown, let it hit your heart now
Wake Up! Wake up! Don't worry what's to come
Just listen for the breakdown, Let it move your feet now

{Everything around me became so... unreal... as if in a dream}

We're from the future
We're bringing all the noise
This is the latest trend
For all the girls and boys
They've got tomorrow
But as the day will last
Your time is borrowed-

Turning back the clocks
Just a second or two
I see you standing there, knowing not what to do
With every breath you take, another moment goes by
The rhythm of the bass gives you that look in your eye

(CHORUS)

-Music-
Wake Up-

This is a state of
Dyer emergency
Your feet are standing
Your body stationary
We'll drop the beat, boy
Your emancipation
Is gonna come, gonna- You gotta

(CHORUS x2)
