Translated:

JUST WILD BEAT COMMUNICATION

While being pounded by rain

I want to let you know the unfading hot feelings inside me

TONIGHT!

I held your damp shoulders to warm you

Your fingers tremble--what are they seeking?

In broken speech, tell me why you want this pain

You no longer seem so grown up, as your pretenses fade

I want to protect this image of you--

Believe that love will change sadness to strength

Don't be afraid of anything

Because noone's going to take away the shared feelings of now, our youth

While being pounded by rain

I want to let you know the unfading hot feelings inside
me

TONIGHT!

Until the faraway dawn, I want to spend the night nestled close to you

We can lose everything else, as long as we don't lose gentleness

From words, through kisses, we feel each other's heartbeats

Drawing passion near, for an instant, for eternity...

Painfully, violently, I want to focus on this

In this tearful situation, only you are precious

Don't surrender anything

Because, if we both understand each other, we'll be able to fight as one

Don't let go of love

This overflowing, hot face will tell you its deepest secrets
