oh, come and take me away, oh, 'cause everything is wrong today, look to the east, there are colors in the sky the sun and the flames, and tho I started to cry

'cause every time you touch me I feel like I'm being born every time you touch me I feel like I need some more love's so high, never feeling bad, used to be alone now I feel so glad,
every time you touch me I feel like I'm being born anytime you need some peace come along and stay with me the forest burns, there are fires in the sky

born
every time you touch me I feel like I need some more
love's so high, never feeling bad,
used to be alone now I feel so glad,
born

want time in your fist, you got to be free want time in your fist, now come stay with me cause I pull it to the left pull it to the right mass this song wid dem dat uptight want everybody just feel alright mass it 'course to make you excite

born
every time you touch me I feel like I need some more
love's so high, never feeling bad,
used to be alone now I feel so glad,
