"Mercy"

The man in the moon has a thousand different faces
The man in the mood changes colors each day
He's watching us all, the big and the small
(Oh can he see) Just you and me
Searching for my destiny
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
Mercy, Mercy
Wanna be free and happy
Have mercy on me
Do you believe we can travel to the future
Do you believe there's a man in the sky
We're making him sad, the good and the bad
(Oh can he see) Just you and me
Searching for my Destiny
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
Mercy, Mercy
Wanna be free and happy
Have mercy on me
I don't wanna be just one of many faces
I want you looking at me
Sit down and take a look, put me into motion
Give me something to believe
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
Mercy, Mercy
You've got to have pity on me
Have mercy on me
