(feat. Gwen Stefani)
see myself in the pouring home see the light come over now see myself in the pouring rain i watch hope come over me

yeah, yeah
here we are now, going to the east side i pick up my friends and we start to ride ride all night, we ride all day some may come and some may stay here we are in the pouring home i watch the light man photochrome i watch a light move across the screen i watch the light come over me

yeah, yeah
here we are now going to the west side weapons in hand as we go for a ride

watching out for a sunny day where there's love and darkness and my sidearm hey, elan

here we are now going to the north side i look at my friends as they start to ride ride at night we ride all day looking out for a sunny day here we are now going to the south side i pick up my friends and we hope we won't die ride at night, ride through heaven and hell come back and feel so well.
