See myself in the pouring home
See the light come over now
I see myself in the pouring rain
I watch hope come over me

Here we are now, going to the Eastside
I pick up my friends and we start to ride
Ride all night, yeah, we ride all day
Some may come others some may stay

Here we are in the pouring home
I watch a light man fall the comb
I watch a light move across the screen
I watch a light come over me

Here we are now going to the Westside
Weapons in hand as we go for a ride
Some may come others some may stay
Watching out for a sunny day where there's

Love and darkness and my sidearm
Hey, elan, elan

Here we are now going to the Northside
I look at my friends as they start to ride
Ride at night, yeah, we ride all day
Looking out for a sunny day

Here we are now going to the Southside
I pick up my friends and we hope we won't die
Ride at night, ride through heaven and hell
Come back love and feel so well
