I knew I should have interjected
Cuz every angel deserves to be protected

Standing in line at white castle
A pretty angel was next to an asshole
He was saying anything he could
To make her feel bad I guess it made him feel good
She was trying hard not to show that
She was emberassed and heart broken
I knew I should have interjected
Cuz every angel deserves to be protected

[CHORUS - SPANISH VOCALIST]

Pumpin some gas in my corolla
I heard a noise and looked ova my shoulda
I saw her on the passenger seat
He was screaming at her in his jeep
Your never good enough and you stupid
You belong on the block like the new kids
I know I should have interjected
Cuz every angel deserves to be protected

[CHORUS - SPANISH VOCALIST]

You way to precious to be dealin with an ungreatful scrub
Say goodbye to him and I will show you some greatfull love
Ima cure you from dat insecure dood
Who only acts rood and messed up yur mood
Ima break you free from that prison that you traped in I'm the garbage man I'm here to trash him
This aint no science fiction girl my love is real
So if you want a real man now you know the deal

[CHORUS - SPANISH VOCALIST]

I know I should have interjected
Cuz every angel deserves to be protected
