Same look, you'd think I'd know it by now
Same voice, you'd think I'd keep away
Same lips, I know full well what this means
Same hips, I'm falling through the floorboards
So long it took to recover last time
Be strong, you can hang in there till last call
Don't talk, you'll just get the phone number
Say hello again, to
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
That look, a mongoose in the headlights
That voice, so quick and so exacting
Hold tight, The jet's already fueling
Tonight, I'll hold the fire in my arms
Same glance, I shudder in recognition

Same dance, circle each other for the kill
Same pain awaits me when it's over
The medically proven effects of
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
(guitar solo)
Three weeks of truly delinquent heaven
In flight the view is simply stunning, but...
Small lies start clogging up the plumbing
Alibis that only a fool would fall for Swing low, my chariot is waiting
I know what I'm losing as I walk away
Next time it won't be so forgiving
The undisputed champion
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
Caffeine, nicotine and treason
