My lovely one, my lovely one, sure like to know what I have done
Why am I talking to your back
My sweetie pie, oh sweetie pie, you walk away without goodbye
What am I supposed to do with that?
I'm just a man who really loves you
Not your ex, not your father
But when I remind you of what they didn't do
You gotta run for cover
High voltage feelings underground
Buried in the night so long ago
High voltage feelings underground
Someone's gonna dig 'em up
Sometimes in public I say things in a way that you wouldn't
That doesn't make me rude and cruel
And if I just don't get it when you send a message unspoken
Doesn't mean I'm not trying

I hold you in my arms whenever you want me to Share in your sense of funnin'
Keep my mouth shut 'till your story's through Doesn't that count for nothin'
High voltage feelings underground
Buried in the night so long ago
High voltage feelings underground
Someone's gonna dig 'em up
(sax/guitar duet)
We work so hard to get through this sad, sad moment
Even now, wouldn't want another
We drive each other crazy but I know for sure We'll get through this together
High voltage feelings underground
Buried in the night so long ago
High voltage feelings underground
Someone's gonna dig 'em up
High voltage feelings underground
