I open my eyes
To see her face
In a daze we engaged
Last night I slept about an hour
To fill her needs and desires

[Chorus]

One more night in California
One more night with you
One more night
Ya she's alright (she's alright)
One more night (yeah)
One more night in California

Dom dom dom baby one more night
Dom dom dom baby one more night

I need to catch a ride
To the south side
I grabbed a patty and a shake
I felt the earthquake
I jumped in the cab for LAX
I flipped him a tip
hey man!
Then I split

One more night in California

One more night with you
One more night

But she's alright
She's alright
One more night (yeah)
One more night in California
Night in California
Night in California
Night in California

dom dom dom baby one more night dom dom baby one more night
I opened my eyes to see her face

But she's alright
she's alright
One more night (yeah)
one night in California

She's alright
She's alright
One more night..yeahhh
One more night in California
Night in California
Night in California
Night in California
