Saying I love you, it's the hardest thing to do

And if I ever do, girl I'll always be true

I may not be the best

Looking guy you ever knew

But I can show you love

That willa lways be true

And when your skies turn grey

My love will guide the way

And if these words that I hold

Could only be told

Saying I love you, it's the hardest thing to do

And if I ever do, girl I'll always be true

And when your tears fall to the ground

I will pick you up when you're feeling down

Saying I love you, it's the hardest thing to do

And if I ever do, girl I'll always be true

And when your tears fall to the ground

I will pick you up when you're feeling down

Saying I love you, it's the hardest thing to do

And if I ever do, girl I'll always be true
