Bound to the time on the clock
Bittersweet wondering the quiet transfusion
Hold tight nothing is complicated
Hold tight everythings fine
Confidence fell through the hold in your pocket
The simples illogical so it be logic
Im cuaght in the diaries with all your complaining
The curious scribblings of one who has everything
Leave me unholy dirty and beautiful ne
Unholy dirty and beautiful
Cherish the lies that you bought
Charming delusions go crack in the fire
I know we might be mediocre
I know nothings on fire
Confidence fell through the hole in your pocket
The simples illogical so it be logic
Im caught in the diaries with all your complaining
Ridiculous grumblings from one who has everything
Leave me unholy dirty and beautiful be
Unholy dirty and beautiful
