"Everything Needs Love"

*There's a sound I hear in the dark
It's a secret that's sung by the vanishing stars
The lonesome bird losing it's song to tears, whispers,
"I was born to be remembered."

As the voices rise and reach out
Comes a ray of the sun through the blanket of clouds
The crying sky unlocks the secret kept
She calls the truth I've found always stay here in my heart*

Everything needs love
Everything needs love

Repeat *

Breathe deep and listen to the raindrops
Fly over valleys and the hilltops
Glide down and dive into the ocean
Let tides spill over your emotion

Everything needs love

Repeat *

Everything needs love
Everything needs love
