Plasticine for people, surgery
I'm not aware that you're not there
Plasticine for people, surgery
I'm not aware that you're not there

I get an eary feeling when they say I'm interactive
I still think it's hard to find, a finger for the hoax
Any kind of consciousness will surely be neglected
The kindergarten influences bother me the most

Tell me where my inner me has suffered from an overdone
Exposure, exposure, exposure, exposure
It's just because my inner you has me for you to double choose
I told her, I told her, I told her, I told her

Now I think it's time to get a ticket for the climax Fully taped in PVC, wired to the bone
They made me made that I was reasonably tired
Took me to the nearest place were I could be stoned

Tell me where my inner me has suffered from an
overdone
Exposure, exposure, exposure, exposure
It's just because my inner you has me for you to double
choose
I told her, I told her, I told her, I told her

Plasticine for people, surgery
I'm not aware that you're not there
Plasticine for people, surgery
I'm not aware that you're not there

I get an eary feeling when they say I'm interactive
I still think it's hard to find, a finger for the hoax
Any kind of consiousness will surely be neglected
The kindergarten influences bother me the most
