It ain't not what you think it is
Cover it up in silver
Always gives me shivers
Despite all she lingers on

In her limestone mansion
She thinks she's very handsome
Know that I can't have some
Know they often kid's done

She found silver, she found that, that
Feel it slipper in my head, yeah
She found silver, she found that, that
Feel it slipper in my head, yeah

She looks through a different angle
She sees a triangle
Think they all start mangling thoughts
I don't care a fuck, but they do a lot

Cover it up in silver
She still gives me shivers
I don't re-care what she thinks
Probably only futile things

She found silver, she found that, that
Feel it slipper in my head, yeah
She found silver, she found that, that
Feel it slipper in my head, yeah

It ain't what you think it is
Cover it up in silver
Always gives me shivers
Despite all she lingers on
