Nevermind if you're feeling to tall
It's easy to become very small
I stood there when he started to stall
I never grounded his nose went to crawl

Super-super-super-super-super-super-super-skunk
Super-super-super-super-super-super-super-junk
Falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-punk

It's easy to complain about all
Fathers wouldn't do no harm
I shiver by the thought of it all
I used to make that same phone call

Falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-falling-punk
