Someone's playing tug-of-war
With someone else's flesh and home
There's a fire that's in your soul
And I hope they leave that fire alone
Oh, someone is making a deal
And someone else is getting a fee
Please don't make a deal
If it involves you and me
Cause someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
You don't need to be right or wrong
To have a point of view
Someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
I don't wanna take a guess
To find out what is going on
There's too much rain inside my head
I can't tell the clouds for the storm
I know something needs to change
That is something I can see
She just wants to take the forest away
And he just wants to take the trees

Someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
There is no in-between
You can't win when you have to choose
Someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
You don't need to be right or wrong
To have your point of view
I don't wanna love from guilt
And I don't want your guilt to be blind
There's a fire that's in your view
Every time you leave me behind
Oh someone is playing a game
And someone is talking sides
Please don't play that game
If you only win by telling lies
Someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
There is no in-between

You can't win when you have to choose
Someone will get screwed
Someone will get screwed
