I've always feared this day will come
The time that you would say
Those three words to me
So now, I do what must be done

Prepare to set you free and now you've discovered
This secret wall around my heart
Oh, I won't let love bring me down
I just can't afford to let these feelings start

My heart gets all the breaks
'Cause when it comes to love I'm taking chances
My heart gets all the breaks
I'm taking all the chances that my heart can take

I've just been hurt too many times
To walk the burning coals of romance again
Please love, love me from your heart
You can't change my mind, boy, no one can

I wanna stay together
You want the best for both of us
Together we can work it out
Let's keep it hot but don't get serious

My heart gets all the breaks
'Cause when it comes to love I'm taking chances
My heart gets all the breaks
I'm taking all the chances that my heart can take

One time is all it takes
Your gentle heart could never trust to my love
Your love was my mistake
'Cause I've taken all the heartache that my heart can take

My heart gets all the breaks
'Cause when it comes to love I'm taking chances
My heart gets all the breaks
I'm taking all the chances that my heart can take
