You were right about the fuss
Didn't do no good for us
Although my mistakes were few
You were right about them too
I admit that now
At at the time I couldn't tell
You were right to leave as well
'Cause the good times got less
And the bad times well, yes
That's what we got now
What's sad about pride?
It is keeping us apart
What's sad about love?
Eventually it'll break your heart
So let's hear it from the guys that tried
And let's hear it from the guys that failed
You know what I've been through
'Cause it is still haunting you
What's sad about pride?
It is keeping us apart
What's sad about love?
Eventually it'll break your heart
