I may not always love you girl
it's so hard to tell
but by the way that you looked tonight
I might as well
though there's a light shining everywhere that you might go
it is just so where we might be after tonight you and me my love nobody knows

- you've been around before I know and I'm trying -you're not a kid any more don't rush into something this time
-it is much too soon yeah, and when talking I'll let her know that's why

I may not always love you girl
it's so hard to tell
but by the way that you looked tonight
I might as well
though there's a light shining everywhere that you
it is just so
where we might be after tonight you and me my love
nobody knows

- what about her, man?
oh, my intention
- you've forgotten to if I got the chance I'd go slowly
- that'd be the thing to do but still, clearly, I'm pushing girl I'm so sorry but I got carried away by your smile tonight
