When I hear about the magic moment
That people share
I slowly turn over
And picture us there.

When the guys are smiling all over
At what they achieve
You know that I can't help a thing
But if it was me, if it was me.

Way back then, when we were setteled
In a tiny little room down by the tunnel
Just happy going nowhere
'cause that's as far as he goes, far as he goes.

Now I don't wanna go home in the evening
Prefer to stay
And I spend all night at the peer
Just dreaming away, dreaming away.

Back to the days, when we were setteled
With the crazy people down the tunnel
Just happy going nowhere
'cause what else to do, nobody knew.

One for the road and other for the time
That we spend unavailable
You see the way where living is ok
But it's not what it could have been.
