We put all our dreams in big a trunk.
I hope all your dreams come true.
The precious time slipped by twinkling.
Please goes to be true to yourself.
I can trust you in everything.
My good friends, be ambitions.
So just as spring must turn to fall,
so must we all grow old.
I wanna be keep good friends you.
Sometime I make trouble for you.
So, don't be anxious about tomorrow.
We all walk along this way.
Can not see the forest for the trees.
Nothing that man does can be perfect.
There is no knowing what will happened in the future.
This stars will shining still in the twilight of our life.
Like a bird to be free. Leave everything to luck.
I wanna stay with my friends with my love.
Nothing changed.
